SCHMELING BATTERS WALKER TO SUBMISSION IN EIGHT ROUNDS

EXPLOSION ON FRENCH SUBMARINE

One Dead, 32 Injured
Aboard "Persee"

AN ILL-FATED CLASS.

Cherbourg, To-day.

Disaster has overtaken another of the huge French submarines. One man is dead and 32 are injured, nine of them seriously, aboard the submarine Persee, as a result of an explosion during manoeuvres in the English Channel. Fire broke out after the explosion but was quickly quenched.

The Persee, of the same class as the vanished Promethee, which sank with more than 60 souls aboard off the coast of France on July 7, met misfortune under very similar circumstances as those in which her sister ship was lost. The mystery of the Promethee's sudden plunge to the ocean floor, however, is a riddle which still puzzles the French navy experts.

The Persee was on trial runs, coasting along in the lee of the Channel Islands when the explosion jarred her dangerously and threw men stunned and battered against the steel walls of compartments. Fortunately she was travelling on the surface at the time.

Menace Of Fire.

Fire followed the explosion, and there were feats of heroism performed as men dragged or carried injured comrades to safety.

BRITISH NAVY SHIP RUNS ASHORE.

While Charting Coast
Of Labrador.

London, To-day.
The Admiralty announce the grounding of H.M.S. "Challenger" whilst surveying in uncharted waters off the Labrador coast. The vessel struck a rock on September 23, six miles north of Foul Bay light in latitude 56°28' N., longitude 61°10' W. The weather was calm and she was later refloated. Damage to her forward oil tank and several other compartments was sustained. After calling at Foul Bay to re-embark game, parties and as far as possible ascertain the full extent of the damage, she will proceed to St. John's, Newfoundland. H.M.S. "Challenger" has been ordered to proceed to the place and stand by. The survey on which the "Challenger" was engaged is in connection with the opening of the Hudson Bay route, and the area in which the ship was working is quite unexplored. British Wireless Service.

Danish Order For Coal.

London, To-day.
Messages from Copenhagen report very satisfactory business and acceptance of many large orders from Danish buyers.
There is also reported that Danish State railways have now decided to place with British firms the supply of coal for their locomotives.

FRENCH "HYPOCRISY" IS RIDICULED

HITLER FORBIDS MOVE
TO COMPROMISE

BRITAIN SEEKS PEACE

INFURIATED BY THE FRENCH ATTITUDE TOWARDS GERMANY'S ARMAMENTS, HERR ADOLF HITLER, MILITANT NAZI LEADER, HAS FLUNG CHARGES OF "HYPOCRISY" AND "INSOLENCE" INTO THE FACE OF THE PRIME MINISTER OF FRANCE AND HAS DEMANDED THAT THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT REFUSE TO CONSIDER ANY COMPROMISE OR A RETURN TO THE DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE. THE SITUATION HAS GROWN MORE TENSE AND THE ONE HOPEFUL ASPECT COMES FROM THE MEETING OF BRITISH EMPIRE DELEGATES TO GENEVA, WHERE SIR JOHN SIMON ANNOUNCED THAT HE AND MR. ARTHUR HENDERSON WERE MAKING EVERY EFFORT TO EASE THE TENSION.

Munich, To-day.

"Insolence Carried Too Far" is the heading of a leader article by Herr Adolf Hitler in his paper, "The National Observer." The article speaks of Premier Herriot's "insolence and hypocrisy" and accused him of wilfully misrepresenting the facts in the Franco-German armament impasse.

The article further ridicules Premier Herriot's statement that France is animated solely by the idea of securing lasting peace and concludes by maintaining that in view of the attitude of Premier Herriot and his Government it would be a mistake for the Von Papen Government to take the disarmament question with Paris at this time.

The outburst in the Nazi official organ comes as a reply to Premier Herriot's declaration yesterday in which he is reported to have accused Germany of planning not only a powerful defensive army but one which could carry on an offensive war in Europe.

BLOODY GROUP'S FINAL WARNING TO MERCHANTS

Drastic Action Coming
After To-day.

"ENEMY GOODS" MUST GO

[From Our Own Correspondent.]
Shanghai, To-day.

A letter signed by the "Bloody Group" was circulated among members of the Nanking Road Street Union yesterday giving them until to-day to clear out all "enemy goods."

Definite action of a drastic nature is threatened against merchants attempting to sell Japanese products after to-day, inasmuch as the empty talk of boycotting Japan is called futile and national salvation is impossible if traitorous merchants are allowed to profit by the present situation.

The much harried merchants are seeking police protection while they protest that they possess no Japanese goods.
The Street Union has taken action of late to prevent the sale of Japanese goods and has been successful in many instances.

PANIC SPREADS AS EARTHQUAKE ROCKS EUROPE

Shocks Felt In Far
American Station.

ENGLAND IS SHAKEN.

London, To-day.

A violent earthquake was recorded in England to-day. Needles on the seismographs at West Bromwich and London ran off the charts. Seismologists believe the centre of the shock was near the Azores. Seismologists at Washington University at Seattle, which also recorded an earthquake, placed the centre in Mexico or Central America.

Reuter learns from Belgrade and Sofia reports that severe shocks considerably damaged several parts of Yugoslavia. The population was in panic.

A violent earthquake was felt throughout Bulgaria.

VON GRONAU FLIES INTO RAIN STORM

World Fliers Leave
For Philippines.

HOP IN EARLY LIGHT.

Confident that he will reach Manila in about 8 hours, Captain Wolfgang von Gronau, and his three companions, took off from Kowloon Bay shortly after 8 a.m. this morning, in a driving rain-storm. They left amid the cheers of a large gathering of the German Community, including the Consul, Dr. Hahn, who were present at the aerodrome to wish the world-fliers good luck.

"Good weather ahead" was the last message the fliers received before stepping into their Dornier-Wahl amphibian.

Captain von Gronau and his companions arrived at the Kai Tak Aerodrome at 7.15 this morning and devoted some time to giving their machine a last examination. Farewells were brief but good wishes, sincere, and at 8 o'clock Captain von Gronau left for his machine, the two 700 h.p. engines of which were ticking over as the big ship rode lightly on the calm water of the bay. The mooring was cast and after a last wave of the pilot's hand, the engine burst into a steady roar.

Gandhi Decides To Break Six-Day Political Fast

London, To-day.

In Yeravda, Gaol, Poona, Mahatma Gandhi, after carefully studying the Government's reply to the agreement signed by Dr. Bhabha and Dr. Desai, has decided to break his six-day political fast.

The full text of the Government's telegram was contained in this morning's British Official Press.
The Government's reply to the agreement signed by Dr. Bhabha and Dr. Desai, was that the Government had no objection to the agreement, but that it was not bound to accept it.

FRENCH AIR MAIL PILOT SIGHTS WRECKAGE.

Believed Plane Belonging To Missing Britisher.

Rangoon, To-day.

The wreckage of an aeroplane, believed to be that of the missing Birmer Salt and Taylor, two British planters, which was last seen on August 12 when attempting a flight from the Malay States to England, was sighted by the French air mail pilot in the Gulf of Martaban yesterday.

All hope of the two fliers' safety has been abandoned and several searches have proved fruitless. — Reuter.

NOULENS' JUDGMENT FORGED

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Shanghai, To-day.

A statement issued by the Noulens' Defence Committee attacks the alleged forgeries and discrepancies between the recent written judgment and the oral decision of the Court when the couple were sentenced to life imprisonment. The statement purports to adduce evidence supporting the contention of forgery.

British pressure, it is charged, is largely responsible for the alleged irregularities in the Chinese court at Nanking which resulted in the life sentence.
Mr. and Mrs. Noulens, it will be recalled, went on a protracted hunger strike in protest against their case being heard anywhere but at Shanghai. They aroused wide public sympathy and now an appeal is pending.

They were charged with treasonable utterances and as agents of Communism.

CHINESE VESSEL TO BE LAUNCHED AT NEWCASTLE

Mme. Quo Tai-chi To Christen Vessel.

FOR NANKING SERVICE.

London, To-day.

China's first train ferry, built for the Chinese Government on the order of the Chinese Purchasing Commission in London at a cost of $70,000, will be launched at Newcastle on October 12 by Mme. Quo Tai-chi and named the "Changkiang."

The vessel will go to Nanking early in the New Year under its own steam and commence service, a month or two later when the bridge approaches are ready.

The Purchasing Commission still has $2,500,000 Boxer indemnity available for purchases in Great Britain but it is stated that work is hampered by the political complications with Manchuria. For example, the contemplated large purchases for the Peking-Mukden Railway had to be cancelled. — Reuter.

CRITICAL CABINET MEETING

Liberals May Not Oppose Government.

MINISTERS LONDON, BOUND

London, To-day.

A full attendance of Ministers is expected at to-morrow's important meeting of the Cabinet. The Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, in order to be present left Geneva by train last night and will this morning fly in a service machine from Paris to London. Mr. Stanley Baldwin, who returned from Aix-les-Bains on Sunday, had a long conversation with the Prime Minister yesterday and with several other colleagues.

The business before to-morrow's meeting will be the final discussion of the legislation arising out of the Ottawa Conference. Much public interest is being shown in the proposed changes in the tariff on the known factors in the protective Committee of the National Chamber of Commerce, which will be discussed in the House of Commons on Monday.

TECHNICAL KNOCK-OUT

$150,000 Purse Held
Up By Courts.

40,000 FANS SEE FIGHT.

American Felled In First Round, Shows Courage.

New York, To-day.

Max Schmeling, former world heavy-weight champion, won his way to a new opportunity for the title, when he defeated the rugged Mickey Walker, American contender in an elimination battle in the Long Island Bowl to-day. Schmeling beat his opponent a technical knock-out in the eighth round of a scheduled 15-round engagement.

Schmeling's purse of $450,000 has been withheld from the fighter by order of the court, pending a hearing of the suit filed by Garner, the giant Italian fighter, charging Schmeling broke his agreement to fight him for the heavyweight title. There was a good crowd at the Long Island Bowl, and among the celebrities at the ringside were Jack Dempsey, former title-holder, himself a conqueror of Schmeling and Walker, Garner, who has been trying for a world title bout for two years but who gains defeated, and Mayor McKee.

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS.

First round—Schmeling charged out of his corner and landed heavily with both hands on Walker's head. The German continued his assault, mercilessly battering Walker on the face and body. A short, hard right to the chin felled Walker for the count of six. He was groggy at the going of Schmeling's round.

Second round—Walker came out dancing and attempted to out-box the German, but Schmeling walked right through the barrage and landed heavy rights to the body. Three hard rights to the face infuriated the American who charged in, swinging wildly, belting Max's body and forcing his opponent on to the ropes. Round even.

Third round—They exchanged short arm blows. Walker placed several well-timed uppercuts and hooked prettily to Schmeling's face. But the German was smiling. Walker's round.

WALKER GAINING

Fourth round—The fighters put their heads together and "pumped" stinging blows into one another's body. Walker appeared to be getting the better of the in-fighting and his jab had a telling effect. Walker's round.

Summer's Menace To Tasty Meals

Long Waits Sometimes
Spoil Cooking

Things To Be Avoided

Long summer days lure everyone outdoors. Golf and gardening after business hours are both possible if every minute of daylight is made to count, and consequently many home-makers find the dinner hours indefinite and elastic.

When meals must wait, you will find that casserole-cooked foods are especially adaptable. Hot soups also can be kept in good condition in the double boiler, while the cold jellied ones can be kept perfectly without inconvenience in the ice box until the tardy one arrives. Molded salads and desserts, in fact any dishes prepared in the refrigerator, are easy to serve at a minute's notice and keep almost indefinitely.

Vegetables Difficult To Serve. Vegetables present a rather difficult problem, although certain ones can be baked and served in various ways without danger of losing their flavour on long standing. Delicately flavoured vegetables such as asparagus and green peas lose their flavour and tenderness if kept hot or reheated. Scalloped Irish potatoes, sugared or twice baked sweet potatoes, baked spinach, buttered beets and carrots delicious as some vegetable dishes that are not made unappetizing if kept hot.

Moisture Must Be Preserved. All casserole combinations are best baked in a slow oven and then kept hot in a pan of hot water. This preserves all the moisture and heat without overcooking and drying. Part of the dish may be served whenever wanted and the remainder returned to the hot water bath without harm.

Many excellent baked dishes can be made from canned sea-foods, while salt codfish and smoked salmon and halibut lend themselves admirably to casserole cookery. Beef, veal, pork and lamb are always good cooked in casserole and can be combined with vegetables to make a one-piece dish. Casseroles of ham with potatoes and onions takes care of both vegetables and meat. With a molded salad and fresh fruit for dessert a well balanced meal is provided.

Broiled Meats Used For Occasions. Broiled meats can be used for occasions when some time must elapse between the arrival of the belated diners and the serving of their meal. However, chops and individual portions must be served, as soon as cooked for they are ruined by standing.

The reheating of foods ordinarily means an extra amount of work and extra dishes to wash, but foods cooked in casserole require only to be without extra dishes.

Casserole of veal and vegetables makes a seasonal two-in-one main dish.

Casserole of Veal.
One pound veal steak, 1 large onion, 2 cups canned tomatoes, 2 cups cubed carrots, 1 cup peas (fresh or canned), 2 or 3 cups sliced potatoes, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 teaspoons salt, 1-2 teaspoon pepper.

Melt butter and add onion cut in thin slices. Cook until a pale straw colour. Add meat trimmed and cut in pieces for serving and sear quickly. Rub tomatoes through sieve to remove seeds. Put meat and onion in casserole rinsing out the pan in which they were browned with a little hot water and adding this to meat and onion mixture. Add carrots and peas and pour over sifted tomatoes. Cover with potatoes, season with salt and pepper, cover and bake in a slow oven for two hours or until meat and vegetables are tender.

MENU SUGGESTIONS FOR TO-MORROW.

BREAKFAST: Grape fruit, juice, crisp oven toast, milk, coffee.
TIFFIN: String bean and tomato chowder, croissants, lettuce and egg sandwiches, apple sauce, ginger cookies, milk-tea.
DINNER: Baked slice of ham with raisin sauce, new potatoes, spinach in cream sauce, pineapple salad, chocolate pie, coffee.

CHEERFUL HALLS BID WELCOME.

First Impression
Of A Visitor.

The importance of cheery halls often is overlooked. Usually, we get our first impressions of homes and the folks who live there from the halls that greet us.

Sunny, cheerful halls give us a hospitable welcome that warms our hearts long before our host and hostess bid us welcome.

Dull, dreary halls make us wish we had stayed home.

Special lighting, mirrors, pretty wall papers and tinted walls all make their special contribution. It may take some time to figure out just what will make a cheery effect but it is well worth it.

The newest thing to aid halls in welcoming guests is the pot garden idea. On shelves or around the edges of the hall, gaily coloured pots, with blooming flowers, bring the spring outdoors right inside to give the spirits a lift. A dozen plants go a long way. If you don't feel equal to the potted garden idea, try keeping fresh flowers in the hall, right where the mirror reflects them and the lights make them lovelier.

GRAY IS COMING IN AGAIN.

"Decidedly," Declares
One Designer.

"Decidedly gray is coming in," said one of the outstanding New York designers of girls' clothes; "gray and those neutral shades including browns that we associate with English sports clothes, for the English mode is making itself very much felt this Autumn." English women favour this type of costume more than any other; it is peculiarly suited to their temperament and habits and they have made its study a fine art.

The accessories for the sports costume must be carefully studied, for nothing is more jarring than some frivolous touch to what should be a severe toilet.

To A Mother

(By Marienne).

Torn between hunger and maternal cares, She puts her nose beneath the fence to spy, Reluctant to abandon to the night The barrel, where her sons and daughters lie. The scented air awakes her gourmet's soul: With upward shoving nose and agile paw She pries the cover from the refuse can And in the crack insinuates her claw. Meticulous as any chateleine Choosing the courses when the king's to dine, She worries out a well-picked knob of veal, A crab claw and a haddock's sorry spine. I move a step: she hears and terrified She seeks to bear away her grisly prize. The bone is dropped in flight: Upon my face She turns reproachful gray madonna eyes.

There Must Be Mirrors!

Otherwise Dressing
Is A Gamble.

AT AWFUL ODDS.

(By Modista.)

I am constantly meeting women who have dressed themselves all wrong! That is to say, they appear to have dressed more or less in the dark, for their collars are lop-sided and the clocks on their stockings look sideways. And they must have put on their make-up in the dark, too, because either one eyebrow is higher than the other; or else there are ugly splashes of lipstick round the lips instead of on them.

The reason in every case is, of course, that the lights in the bedroom are not right, or the looking-glass leaves something to be desired. No woman who "does up" her face can afford to be without one of the new magnifying make-up mirrors, which can be held in the left hand while the right hand does its artistic work. With a mirror like this you cannot go wrong, for it brings to light every little blemish in the most merciless way—and this, after all, is the only

SHARPHAM'S SPLENDID GOALKEEPING

Holds Speedy Club
Forwards To Draw.

KOWLOON INDIANS WIN.

Splendid goal keeping by I. Sharpham, of the Central British School, who deputised at the last minute for G. Duncan, of the C.B.A., was a feature of the friendly hockey match played between the Central British Association and the Club second eleven, at King's Park yesterday afternoon which resulted in a draw of one goal-all.

This was the C.B.A.'s first match of the season, and they shaped rather well against a much stronger and fitter combination in the Club, who, as the "Wanderers" have played practically throughout the summer.

For the major part of the game, the C.B.A. were on the defensive, S. MacNider, King and Tiddle showing good form. Seldom did their forwards get going however, H.D.J. Lowe, playing an excellent game in the Club's defence. Major MacIntyre also shone in this department.

After several reverses, the C.B.A. took the lead through C. C. Francis, from a pass from J. E. Wilson. In the second half, the Club forwards pressed heavily, Kibbee, Fox and Evans being a constant source of danger. Towards the end, Evans accepted a good centre from Fox and scored the equaliser.

Mr. A. A. Dand had charge of the game.

SAINTS DEFEATED.
Playing only ten men in the first half and losing the services of J.T.K. Gilchrist, in the second half, St. Andrew's Club were defeated by the large margin of five goals to nil by the 5th Battery, H.K.S.R.A., on the Marina ground yesterday afternoon, in a friendly hockey encounter.

K.L.T.C. WIN.
Playing away, the newly formed Kowloon Indians Tennis Club team, defeated the Indian Mule Corps by five goals to nil in an interesting encounter yesterday.

Third Division Soccer On Wrong Lines

Disastrous Wage Bills In The North

PLAYING STAFFS CHANGED

(By OLD INTERNATIONAL.)

The Third Division of the League has yet to realise expectations, and even now, in discussing the prospects, officials in high places shake their heads and whisper, "It was a mistake."

The Northern Section is, of course, the chief concern, and I am afraid that certain of the clubs will, as usual, have to pinch and scrape, and all the time wonder whether they will be able to get through the season.

In my opinion, this competition is run on wrong lines. The clubs ape their seniors in many aspects of management, especially in running up a wage bill that cannot be justified, and the consequences are disastrous.

Third Division football in the north should not be a whole-time job. The players should work and be paid a fee for each match. That is how the game is run in Scotland outside the chief competition.

Fortunately, the situation in the south is much more favourable, and I fear that it must be felt a handicap to be allied to clubs who have not the same resources nor the same opportunities for development. Here again I know many hold that a mistake was made in forsaking the old Southern League, which gave them far more power than they now possess.

In fact, all they gained by the fusion with the Football League was a slender chance to get into the Second Division.

I fear the position even in the south is not as strong as is believed. One club, Thames, went out last season, and there was a serious danger of another following them. Now Aldershot have come in, and in a few months they may wish that they had not. It's a big gamble.

Welcome, Newport!

I am glad to see Newport County back in the competition, because it will help Welsh football at a time when the outlook is very discouraging. There has been nothing more melancholy in the history of the League than the rapid decline of Cardiff City.

I am afraid, too, that there is at the moment little prospect of a recovery. Surely the last straw was when George Latham, the trainer, left Ninian Park. He has gone to Chester, a most enterprising club, and one which I think will advance.

Another new training appointment is interesting. George Holley, the old Sunderland forward, has gone to Barnsley. Holley is still remembered in Sunderland, and stories are told of his marvellous play. He was the Alex. James of his time, amazingly subtle, and with all the tricks of the little Scot who now draws the crowds to High-bury.

I wonder how Barnsley will get on after thirty-four years' continuous membership of the Second Division. At least they will make new friends. There has been no boasting of how they are going to carry all before them. Inasmuch as they have retained only seven old players it looks as if they intend to make a new start. Perhaps they are wise.

Southern Prospect.
The difference between north and south is reflected in the way in which the men are retained from season to season. In fact, in several cases, it does not seem as if there will be many alterations in the southern side. Brighton again appear to have exceptional prospects. They have retained only seven old players, but they have added a number of new ones.

Reinforced Chelsea Trial.
Various reports have been received from the Chelsea trial, and it seems that the club has a very strong team. They have retained only seven old players, but they have added a number of new ones.

EGYPTIAN CHANNEL SWIMMER IN BEACH INCIDENT.

Fights Austrian Minister and Receives Apologies.

Hilmei Bey, Egypt's celebrated Channel swimmer, and a friend of Gertrude Ederle, exchanged blows with the Austrian Minister to Egypt after the diplomat had been dragged by police out of a bathing surf where it was against police regulations to swim.

It happened at fashionable Stanley Bay where Hilmei is a beach inspector. The fight was a draw but the Egyptian government apologized.

W. W. MILES TO RIDE AGAIN AT VALLEY.

Now Able To Take
Keener Interest.

The statement in last night's sports pages to the effect that Mr. W. W. Miles would not be riding at the Valley again this season owing to pressure of business, was erroneously reported.

Mr. Miles states that he is now able to take a keener interest in racing and hopes to ride for many years to come.

Mr. Miles is well-known on the Macao course, where he rode his only win this season. He also registered 8 seconds and two thirds, two second places being at Macao.

of these players should give the London club a great chance to get to the top of the table.

Stronger Than Ever.
I think one of their keenest competitors will be Reading. They played in great style during the second half of last season in an attempt to overhaul Fulham, and now the side seem stronger than ever.

Oxberry, from Blackpool, and Marshall, a former Grimsby player, are admirable forwards, and Dixon, who has come from Barnsley, is a sound back. They have allowed Racoon, the centre forward, to go to Chesterfield, but they will fill this position adequately. Many judges, in fact, declared that Palethorpe was the best centre forward in the competition last season.

ON WITH A FLLOURISH.
Southend United usually start the season with a flourish, but then fade away as soon as the heavy grounds come to slow down their play. It is not easy to explain this, though I have felt that the defence was not really strong enough.

Two new backs have been obtained, Whelan, from Sunderland, and Wootton, from Port Vale. In addition T. Wilson, from Charlton, will be available as an extra centre half.

It is a little surprising that Queen's Park Rangers have not done more to get together a promotion side.

There are enormous possibilities at the White City ground, but they must have a good enough team to realise them.

Crystal Palace too have not been very enterprising, but in their case I do not think the need was so great.

Clapton Orient, on the other hand, have made an admirable selection, especially in securing the two West Ham forwards Stanley Earl and Phillips. Keen should stiffen the half-back line, and Dawson, who has been with Stoke, is a steady back. I believe the Orient will have a more successful season. Understand that the affairs of the club are now in a happier state.

Schmeling Batters Walker

Fifth round.—Walker rocked the German with a left hook to the body and Schmeling staggered but fought back spiritedly. They were close together at the gong fighting hammer and tongs. Round even.

Sixth round.—Schmeling opened up a gash on Walker's lip but Walker pounded the German's body heavily. They were sparring at the gong. Round even.

Seventh round.—Schmeling concentrated on the face and Walker contented himself with slugging his opponent's body. Walker drove him to the ropes with a series of uppercuts to the jaw but the German fought back strongly. Round even.

DECISIVE MOMENTS.
Eighth Round.—Schmeling staggered Walker with lefts and rights to the head and floored him for the count of six with the same vicious right to the chin which felled the American in the first round. There was pandemonium in the huge arena. Walker struggled to his feet in a helpless condition, his left eye closed. Schmeling drove him around the ring, punching with terrific force, but the American covered up and stayed on with him. A fusillade of rights and lefts knocked Walker reeling and he tumbled backwards and sprawled on the canvas. At the count of nine Walker managed to get to his feet and Schmeling, crouching in his corner, flew at him. The bell saved Mickey from a massacre.

Walker reeled to his corner, bleeding badly and hopelessly groggy.

TRIES TO FIGHT ON.
Walker attempted to come up for the ninth round but he was obviously not in a fit condition. He reeled drunkenly as he got up from his stool and Schmeling stood and looked at him. Walker's manager leaped into the ring and pulled the fighter down in his corner.

ELIMINATION FIGHTS.
Schmeling lost a decision, and his title, to Jack Sharkey two months ago, although ringside critics questioned the verdict at the time. Since then promoters have arranged a series of eliminations in order to select a man to meet the present champion in which the Schmeling-Walker fight was a featured event. Two other prominent heavyweights, Max Baer and "Tuffy" Griffiths, are the remaining leaders in the quest for Sharkey's crown.

More than 40,000 people watched Schmeling to-day when he pounded his way to a decisive victory. At no time after the sensational first round, when Walker went down for a count of six, was the outcome actually in doubt although the American veteran displayed a dogged courage and immense defensive skill against his ferocious adversary in the remaining rounds of the fight.

LOGICAL CONTENDER.
On his showing to-day, Schmeling is the obvious challenger for the next world championship bout, unless the claims of the Canadian "Black Panther," Larry Gains, are considered. The probability of a Schmeling-Gains battle, however, is not remote. English and Canadian promoters are bidding for this contest.

PETROLLE WINS UNPOPULAR VERDICT.
Hollywood, Mass., Sept. 19.
Frankie Petrolle, brother of Billy Petrolle, the Fargo Express, won an unpopular decision over Stanislaus Loysa, Chilean waiter, in their 10-round engagement here to-night.

Frankie, who twice conquered Bat Battalino, New York Boxing Commission's world's featherweight champion, met real opposition from the Chilean, who successfully dodged most of his opponent's rushes.

The two exchanged blow for blow, and at the end of the scrap the referee awarded Frankie the nod, although many of the fans believed otherwise.

The Chilean tipped the scales at 144 pounds and Frankie at 144 pounds. Frankie was a native of New York and had been in the United States for some time.

RUGBY PRACTICE.
There were nearly twenty people down at the Valley yesterday when the Hong Kong Rugby Club commenced training for the coming season.

A. P. Hall-Thomson and E. O. F. King were prominent among the new-comers and there is every reason to believe that both players will secure places in the fifteen. L. H. Bradford was not on view, but he will probably be seen in Wednesday's official practice.

DO YOU WAKE UP UNREFRESHED?

It seems hardly any use going to bed at all for what rest it brings you. You awaken tired and stiff and it requires a great effort to rise. This state of affairs means that there is a continuous depletion of nervous energy without any recuperation, a condition which cannot go on very long without serious results.

The trouble has a nervous origin. The nerves are unhealthily tensed and cannot relax, causing sleep to be fitful and disturbed with bad dreams. Tonic treatment through the blood is required to build up the nerves anew and to replenish the depleted reserves of nervous energy. A course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills has proved of immense benefit in countless cases of this kind. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, by a unique process of oxygenation of the blood enable the red corpuscles to increase, thus enriching the blood and providing the starved nerves with the nourishment they require.

For all nervous derangements and other consequences of impoverished blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an efficacious treatment. On sale at chemists and medicine dealers everywhere.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF BETH BERI.

Coming To King's Theatre On October 1.

Miss Beth Beri, the famous young American dancer who is appearing in a return engagement at the King's Theatre commencing October 1 is returning to Hong Kong after a most successful three-months tour of Malaya, Java, Siam and the Philippines.

The danseuse is bringing to Hong Kong an entirely new repertoire, although it is likely that popular demand will make it necessary for her to repeat some of the numbers which so delighted Hong Kong theatre-goers during her appearance here in June. Of these, the "Fan Dance," her interpretation of which won her fame in "Rose Marie," has, without doubt, a universal appeal. During her recent engagement in Singapore, Batavia and Penang, the enthusiastic audiences there refused to allow the dancer to leave the stage before she had repeated several encores of this captivating number.

She will be accompanied at the piano by Mr. Monia Litter, who, acclaimed the most brilliant pianist in the Far East by Zimbalist and Heifetz, combines the difficult art of expert accompaniment and really wonderful solo work. Mr. Litter is passing through Hong Kong on his way to Shanghai where he will appear at several concerts during the coming season.

SPEDDY DIVORCE.

It is a well-known fact that the divorce rate in Hong Kong is one of the highest in the world. This is due to the fact that the Chinese people are very much more inclined to divorce than the Europeans. The Chinese people are very much more inclined to divorce than the Europeans. "DEVIL'S LOTTERY"—KING'S THEATRE.

An English Peer studies the reactions of Derby sweepstake winners in "Devil's Lottery," the Fox melodrama now showing at the King's Theatre, with Elissa Landi, Paul Cavanagh and Victor McLaglen in the principal roles. The film is original and quite entertaining, the supporting cast of players including Alexander Kirkland, Halliwell Hobbes, Beryl Mercer, Herbert Mundin, Ralph Morgan and Barbara Weeks.

Miss Landi portrays with distinction the role of a woman of questionable reputation, Cavanagh is seen as her crooked suave lover, McLaglen is a prize fighter, while Beryl Mercer portrays his Cockney mother, creditably. They are all invited to be the guests of an English Peer publisher, excellently furnished by Halliwell Hobbes. As the picture moves, things begin to happen in a most amazing and entertaining way, culminating in a happy ending.

Miss Landi, who appeared in "Always Goodbye," "Body and Soul" with Charles Farrell, is admirably suited to her role, and looks beautiful.

"TARZAN, THE APE MAN"—QUEEN'S THEATRE.

It falls to the lot of the film producer to try and please everybody and, failing that, to produce pictures which will appeal to almost everybody. Tarzan, the Ape Man, is a picture which falls within the latter classification. It is a wonderfully produced picture which might have made almost as good a silent film as it does a talkie because there is so much that is really thrilling that the absence of sound would not be noticed. However, there is no denying that sound effects and speech do add to the entertainment value of this Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture.

Even those who dislike the far-fetched themes of Edgar Rice Burroughs will find the picture interesting because the jungle scenes are good and some of the wild animal acts really amazing. See Johnny Weissmuller, the world's champion swimmer, wrestle with real live lions and leopards, swim rivers infested with crocodiles, climb upon the backs of elephants and swing dizzily from tree to tree and you will wonder how it is all done. Those who want to know how Tarzan cut his hair and shaved his chin and how he escapes from the clutches of a ferocious lion, which has apparently chewed up his shoulder, without displaying a scratch upon his beautifully proportioned body, must write him a letter.

The picture gives a genuine thrill and the experience of Mr. W. S. Van Dyke, who directed Trader Horn, is reflected in the excellent made scenes of typically African jungle. The cast includes Neil Hamilton and C. Aubrey Smith as the intrepid ivory hunters, and Maureen O'Sullivan as the girl who eventually decides to share Tarzan's wild life. Weissmuller makes a very convincing Tarzan, and throughout the picture he gives evidence of his amazing athletic prowess.

The picture is now showing at the Queen's Theatre.

"ALL QUIET"—ORIENTAL THEATRE.

Universal's greatest triumph "All Quiet on the Western Front" is the current attraction at the Oriental Theatre. "HIGH TREASON"—TAI PING THEATRE.

London in 1940, when living will be in a mechanised world, is depicted in the Gaumont British production "High Treason" which is having its initial screening at the new Tai Ping Theatre. The trial of a man who killed another to save the world, is a martyrdom which provides the dramatic climax of the production. Benita Hume, Basil Gill, Humberston Wright and Jameson Thomas have leading roles.

"High Treason" is a triumph to British producers. An age of scientific marvels and sartorial surprises is depicted. See it!

"PERSONAL MAID"—MAJESTIC THEATRE.

The spectacular clever direction of Mr. Monta Bell, makes "Personal Maid," now showing at the Majestic Theatre, entertainment of a fairly high standard. The story is of the modern Cinderella type, and Nancy Carroll and Gene Raymond appear in the leading roles. Pat O'Brien is also in the cast.

"AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 MINUTES"—CENTRAL THEATRE.

The interesting travelogue "Around the World in Eighty Minutes," produced by Douglas Fairbanks, senior, is attracting large crowds at the Central Theatre where it is having its second release. Excellent scenery plus humorous dialogue make this production extremely interesting, and one that should not be missed.

Gambling on the Mississippi river boats forms the background to Universal's presentation "Show Boat" now showing at the open-air Garden Theatre. Joseph Schildkraut and Laura La Plante head a large and capable cast.

OFFICIAL SOURCES.

"Splinters in the Navy."

The story of life on a battleship as told in "Splinters in the Navy" is utterly irresponsible, but is utterly fun, and, what is more, it is wholesome. The "story" speedily gets lost in a series of hilarious incidents culminating when the weird A. B. hero, Joe Crabbs (Sydney Howard), and his pal, Bill Nivens, go ashore at Plymouth, and persuade Lew Lake to bring his Splinters aboard to celebrate the admiral's betrothal.

There is also a boxing match which is sheer joy. Everybody will like this picture which is scheduled as the next change at the Queen's Theatre.

"Sinners in the Sun."

Carole Lombard, blonde leading woman of "No One Man," was signed to a new Paramount screen contract recently. Her good fortune was immediately followed by assignment to the leading feminine role in "Sinners in the Sun" which comes to the King's Theatre on Thursday next.

BOY MUSICIAN HAD NO TEACHER.

Self-Taught Prodigy From Japan.

PLAYED AT PENINSULA.

Thirteen years old and acclaimed as one of the greatest child xylophonists, that is Sadao Iwai, the little Japanese boy who delighted the audience at the Peninsula Hotel during the concert on Sunday night.

He is unable to speak a word English, but with the help of Mr. A. G. Piovaneli, manager of the Peninsula Hotel, a brief resume of the boy's interesting life was obtained.

When he was only seven years of age, he expressed a liking for "the musical boards that one hits with little hammers" and a special instrument was made for him. At first the instrument was a novel to him and he played with it as a toy, but his parents, seeing that their son was naturally gifted with music, decided to cultivate his talent.

The young Japanese disdained teachers. Despite all parental pleadings, he refused the help of anyone. His entire repertoire, his finesse in playing the instrument, has all been gained through his own initiative. He practiced every moment that he could, listened to other artists, developed his own technique and studied the tempos of music from Europe and America. It was hard to get away from the peculiar Nipponese rhythm that he was so used to, but with the help of his mother, who is an accomplished pianist, and his father, who is a violinist of note, he succeeded in learning to play waltzes, marches, the classics, in fact every kind of selection so well, that even now he is the envy of the most experienced xylophonists.

Emperor Interested.

After only a year of extensive practice, he was accomplished enough to make a tour of his own country.

One night, before a large crowd of Japanese music lovers at the Imperial Theatre in Tokyo, he played so well that the Emperor, who was present, took an interest in him and urged him to continue his studying.

As a result of the Emperor's interest, the little boy, then only nine years old, studied with all his might. He concentrated on his beloved instrument until last year he was accomplished enough to plan a world tour.

Plans World Tour.

He played first before the International Club in Nanking; then the Rotary Club in Shanghai, at the Luneta in Manila, with the South Wales Borderers Band in Hong Kong, at Z. B. W. Hong Kong's Radio station, and finally to his most outstanding success, at the Peninsula Hotel.

Together with his mother and father, Sadao will be leaving Hong Kong on October 4. He intends to first go to Java, thence to Singapore. A tour of India and Egypt will follow and then on to Europe. The United States will also have the pleasure of hearing his masterful renditions.

The whole trip is to last about two years and at the end of that time he will go back to Japan to prepare for future triumphs of the music world.

Thursday next.

Co-featuring with Miss Lombard in Chester Morris' star of "Corsair". Within the space of just two years the former Mack Sennett starlet has become established as one of the leading dramatic actresses on the screen. Already Paramount has lined up a series of stellar roles, the next of which will be in "Through the Window," in which she will appear with Morris and Regis Toomey.

MURDER HEARING IS ADJOURNED.

Chinese Charged With Fatal Stabbing.

LI Kaap-ting, leather-maker's apprentice, was arraigned on a murder charge at Central Magistracy yesterday afternoon.

The tragedy in a flat in Tung Lo
Wan Road, Causeway Bay district, where a Chinese boy of 15 was stabbed to death during a struggle with an intruder, and the stabbing
of four other inmates of the flat,
was recalled in the Central Magistracy. LI is charged with the crime.

In a statement to the Police
the prisoner is said to have admitted the crime and to have declared that his motive in making the visit was robbery, in order to repay a pressing creditor.

In his outline for the Crown,
Mr. R. E. Lindsell (Assistant Attorney General) said that the screaming of a parrot ushered in the tragedy. After the appearance of an amah, the intruder appeared to go mad, and slashed about wildly with a sharp instrument. The accused jumped from the verandah, and was arrested the following night about four doors away. He was injured and was taken to the Government Civil Hospital.

After evidence was taken the hearing was adjourned.

PLAN FOR KOWLOON MAGISTRACY.

Fine Building For Court Use.

One of the tentative measures
voted for at the recent Budget meeting of the Legislative Council was the construction of a new Magistracy in Kowloon. A sum of $120,000 was asked.

The old Yaumati Police Station is at present serving the needs of the Kowloon public, but it is wholly inadequate, being too small.

The new building, as outlined in the plan presented to the Council, will be three storeys in height and will contain in addition to the two large court rooms, a juvenile court,
waiting rooms, stores for records,
cells and detention rooms, quarters
for messengers, Magistrate's Chambers, Solicitors' rooms and office accommodation for the administrative staff.

The whole top floor will be a European flat, suitable for the Magistrate.

News in Brief.

While painting a room in the Hotel Cecil yesterday, Wong Yee-ho (24), a painter, accidentally fell from a ladder, sustaining injuries to his body. He was sent to the hospital.

A Chinese woman who attempted to commit suicide by jumping into the harbour near the Wanchai Police Station was rescued by Police Constable Cheung Fung-cheung, and sent to the Government Civil Hospital.

Kong Ho-man, who appeared before Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Central Police Court this morning was sentenced to six weeks' hard labour
for the theft of four opium pipes,
valued at $20, the property of Ng Chan.

A returned banished, charged in the Central Police Court this morning with the theft of a singlet, was sentenced to 10 months' hard labour for returning from banishment and an additional six weeks' hard labour
for larceny.

The Indian Chief Warder and Indian staff of the Prisons Department are giving a farewell tea-party in Messrs. Lane, Crawford's restaurant to-morrow at 5.15 p.m. to Chief Warder T. C. West, who is retiring on pension after long and meritorious service.

Severe scalds were sustained by Leung Ping, an employee of the Nam Hing Knitting Factory, 83,
Tung Choi Street, Mongkok district,
who accidentally fell into a boiler containing hot water. He was sent to the Kwong Wah Hospital in a serious condition.

One case of diphtheria is the only notifiable disease reported on the health return for the 24 hours ending September 24. During the week ending September 24, one case of cholera, three cases of enteric fever and six cases of pulmonary tuberculosis were reported. Two deaths from enteric fever and one from cholera are also reported.

Canada-U.S. Plans For Waterway

Immense Project For The Future

COST TO BE BILLION

MILES OF LAKE AND RIVER TO BE NAVIGABLE.

By R. L. DUFFUS.

The announcement that the United States and Canada have agreed upon the outline of a treaty,
to be signed "at an early date," governing the improvement of the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes Waterway has brought again into the public eye one of the most intricate problems which has ever arisen in North America in connection with the utilization of a natural resource.

Navigation facilities, the possibility of an immense power development, the respective interests of Canada and the United States, rivalries among States, Provinces and ports, friction between local and central governments and the issue of private versus public development of power have all entered into the situation. The controversy between the State of New York and the Federal Government, which had a climax in President Hoover's refusal to confer with Governor Roosevelt prior to the completion of the treaty, is only one dramatic element in a vast project or series of projects which is monumental in its scope and possibilities.

Objectives of the Plan.

In brief, the undertaking involved is to open the Great Lakes to sea-going cargo vessels, adding in effect thousands of miles to the sea-coast of the United States, and at the same time to develop on the St.
Lawrence River an amount of power equal to half that now used by domestic consumers in this country. More than 1,200 miles of interior waterways will be made accessible between Montreal and Chicago. The cost for deepening of channels, building of locks and canals and construction of power plants will run close to $300,000, 000, or nearly three times as much as the cost of the Panama Canal;
of this sum a large part has already been expended on navigation work. Additional expenditures of interior cities for port improvements may well bring the grand total to more than $1,000, 000,000.

Four Steps Needed.

For this gigantic undertaking
from seven to eight years will be required. Before it can be fully realized, four major steps must be taken:

1. The United States and Canada must ratify the treaty—the outline of which the two governments have just concluded—settling all questions of power and navigation in which international rights are involved. This will bring to an end an effort at settlement which has been going forward at intervals for thirty years.
2. The State of New York and the Federal Government must come to an agreement, adjusting their respective rights in the two fields of power and navigation, and apportioning construction costs.
3. The Dominion Government of Canada must complete agreements with the Province of Ontario, in whose territory the proposed power development on the Canadian side will be located, and with the Province of Quebec, which is concerned with its own power enterprises and with the maintenance and improvement of the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes Waterway. In both cases understandings appear to have been reached, except for technical details.
4. Assuming that the State of New York adjusts its difficulties with the Federal Government, it must contract with private power interests for the sale of its power from the St. Lawrence, or, failing that, must arrange to distribute the power itself. If the latter policy is adopted legislation will be necessary to enable municipalities to go into the business of power distribution for themselves and to create power districts or farmers' cooperatives to purchase current for rural use. It is theoretically possible to build the New York power plants without such an arrangement made in advance, but it would not be possible to finance them.

The element of power and navigation are both involved in all these adjustments. They are interwoven in all the engineering, economic and political discussions of the question. However, as their purposes and interests are distinct, they may be considered separately.

JAPAN RUNS GRAVE RISK, PARIS HINTS.

Paris, To-day.
Commenting on Japan's recognition of the new Manchurian state, "Le Temps" expresses fears lest the Japanese action might lead to serious complications. One might argue, the paper declares, about the advantage of recognising such a state
but to conclude an alliance with it when its existence has not yet been acknowledged by any other Power, is another matter and seems to affect the equality of rights of the Powers in the Far East as well as the political status quo. The paper concludes that Japan is running the risk of putting herself into a very delicate position so far as the League of Nations is concerned.

South American Troubles.

No continent has suffered more heavily from the general economic and financial crisis than South America, and it is therefore the less surprising that political disturbances have been violent and widespread in the Latin Republics
this Spring and Summer. Chile has seen a revolution followed by a counter-revolution, and, although the Communist faction has been defeated, the recent outbreak
among the students of the University of Santiago and the financial difficulties which have led the Minister of Finance to resign suggest that the country has not seen the end of its troubles. The Government of Peru has defeated a Communist rebellion waged with horrid savagery, and there have been mutinies in Ecuador. A civil war, only partially obscured by the censorship imposed by the military supporters of President Vargas, is raging in Southern Brazil. The relations between Bolivia and Paraguay are as bad as they could be—short of a formal declaration of war. Fortunately there are bright political spots in the prevailing gloom.
General Gomez, the virtual Dictator of Venezuela, has his enemies, but the country is enjoying internal peace, as is the Republic of Columbia. Argentina has returned to constitutionalism and is making a gallant fight against her financial and economic difficulties;
and the formal rupture of her diplomatic relations with Uruguay
has not strained the friendly relations between the peoples of the two Republics. Even in some of the less tranquil States Communist propaganda, which had aroused a brief alarm in liberal Uruguay, seems, as knowledge grows, to be losing some of its appeal to the masses. Still, after enumerating these evidences of improvement or stability in the condition of several South American States, the friendly observer of Latin American affairs must hark back, however reluctantly, to the Gran Chaco and to the troubles of the United States of Brazil. The Bolivian Government recently returned an answer to the appeal of neutral American

States which was singularly unhelpful to the cause of peace.
They agreed to a cessation of hostilities on the basis of the retention of the present positions—in other words, of the forts or block-houses which their troops had captured in recent encounters. They have now opened negotiations for a settlement by arbitration. Their Legation in London issued a statement laying stress on their alleged title to "the territorial sovereignty of the whole Gran Chaco region"
and denying that their claims are limited to the right of access to the Atlantic by a port on the Paraguay River. The neutral Powers, which showed no readiness to accept their earlier reservation, will hardly relish the latest affirmation of their claims.
A rebellion, first described by the Federal Government as a secessionist movement on the part of the State of Sao Paulo, seems likely to involve other States in Southern Brazil, where the administration of the Provisional President, Dr.
Getulio Vargas, has become extremely unpopular. His enemies accuse him of an excessive dependence on his military supporters.
They allege that far too many officers have been rewarded for their services in the Revolution of 1930 by promotion to higher temporary rank and by the gift of administrative posts for which they are unfitted by training and experience;
that the censorship of the Press and other restrictions on public libera-ties have been carried to absurd
lengths by the Federal authorities;
and they demand that the present
Dictatorship be abolished. The serious economic and financial troubles of the country have no doubt given an edge to criticisms of the Federal Government, but there can be little doubt that the continued suspension of the Constitution has irritated important elements in the Southern States of Brazil.

NEW LAW RESTRICTS LABOUR STRIKES

MEDIATION FIRST MUST PROVE FAILURE.

Arbitration Essential.

Nanking, Sept. 17.

An important restriction upon the right of Labour Unions to declare strikes is imposed by a revision of Art. 23 of the Labour Union Law adopted at a meeting of the Legislative Yuan yesterday.

According to the revised provision, no strike may be declared by any Labour Union unless and until the dispute giving rise thereto shall have come up for mediation and failed of settlement, and unless two-thirds of the entire membership of the Union shall have signed their assent thereto, by voting in secret ballot, at a plenary meeting of the Union.

No strike may be declared, despite compliance with these conditions, if the dispute has been, or, according to Law, ought to have been referred to arbitration.

Labour Unions of workers in the enterprises mentioned in Art. 3 of the Labour Union Law (i.e. public utilities and State enterprises) may not go on strike under any circumstances whatsoever. The revised provision also stipulates that where a strike has been called, members of the labour union shall be strictly prohibited from disturbing public peace and order, from endangering the life and property of either the employers or other persons, and from demanding increase in wages in excess of the standard fixed by the Government.—Kuo Min.

GERMANY'S TRADE IS STILL FALLING.

Exports And Imports Both Decline.

SCANDINAVIAN BENEFITS.

Berlin, To-day.

German trade returns for August show that imports, amounting to 331,000,000 Marks, receded by 35,000,000 Marks compared with the previous month. Exports, totalling 428,000,000 Marks, also show a decline, which, compared with July amounts to 2,500,000 Marks. This development is regarded here as rather disappointing since the seasonal tendencies this year seemed to favour an increase of exports, and were expected to continue.

Imports from the United States, Argentina, the Dutch East Indies, Brazil, the Netherlands, British India, the Soviet Union, Great Britain, and Poland, decreased in the period under review, but those from Scandinavia, especially Sweden and Norway, increased. As to exports, those to the Soviet Union, Switzerland and especially to France, decreased, whereas those to Sweden, Great Britain, Denmark and the United States recorded an increase.

Disappointment is also voiced in a statement of the Prussian Ministry of Commerce, based on the reports of the various Chambers of Commerce, at the fact that August did not bring any evidence of the widely hoped-for turn of the tide. Though the disproportion between demand and supply became less pronounced and prices of raw materials ceased dropping, the political difficulties apparently greatly hampered the renewal of confidence in business-circles.

All branches of industry, except textiles, metals, shoes, and agricultural machinery, show, it is stated, a certain degree of improvement.—Trans-Ocean Kuo Min.

FRENCH "HYPOCRISY" IS RIDICULED.

Britain's Peace Move.

Geneva, To-day. British representatives in Geneva are striving, with others, to smooth the ruffled feelings of both French and German diplomats. That a grave situation exists is only too apparent. Before setting out to London to attend the Cabinet session, Sir John Simon had a brief interview with Premier Herriot who arrived in Geneva by motor after telegraphing that the interview might be arranged.

Sir John Simon earlier had presided at a meeting of British Empire delegates, from which Mr. de Valera was absent, but represented by Mr. Lester, the Irish Free State delegate to the League Council.

At this meeting, Sir John explained that efforts were being made by various states to induce Germany to return to the fold of the Disarmament Conference and added that Mr. Arthur Henderson was working in concert with other parties in this direction.—Reuter.

KIM PUNCH

NIGHT OF GAIETY AT PENINSULA.

Splendid Programme For Winter Opening.

FAMOUS DANCE ARTISTS.

A splendid night entertainment has been planned by the management of the Peninsula Hotel for the formal opening of the Winter Season in the famous Rose Room of that establishment on Saturday, October 8.

A complete cabaret, two famous dancers, a world renowned tap dancer, using an assumed name, the well-known entertainer Miss Laura Guerite, and others who have delighted audiences everywhere, will all be thrown together in one mad night of gaiety.

The Rose Room is being completely redecorated for the occasion. A new orchestra pit is being erected that when finished will be similar to the one in the famous "Kit Kat Klub" in London. An entire change of dance selections will be featured by Dick Luterio and his orchestra. "Congorilla," a new jungle fox trot that is now the rage in the States, "Jai Deux Amours," the sensational song made famous by Miss Josephine Baker in Paris and "Fountain," another hit written by Padilla, whose song "Valencia" was such a success in 1928, will be three of the new numbers played.

Miss Guerite promises to sing her famous "Ten Cents a Dance" in addition to her usual humorous monologues.

Direct From Berlin. The Cabaret, which is direct from the Winter Garden in Berlin, is led by Mlle. Yvonne Gladet. The troupe is just passing through the Colony but have kindly consented to appear on this special night.

Jole Dixie, the name taken by a famous coloured dancer who would rather remain a mystery, will delight the audience with her clever routine of dancing numbers. She is from America's Dixie, the Southern States, and will show the audience real tap dancing as only the coloured people know how.

The highlight of the whole night's programme will be the appearance of Hugo and Josephine, two widely known American dancers. They consented to come to Hong Kong only after much persuasion by Mr. A. G. Piovaneli, Manager of the Peninsula Hotel. Both dancers scored outstanding successes at the "Folies Bergere" in Paris, the "Casino" at Monte Carlo and in "Cochrane's Revue" in London. At the present time they are the toast of Shanghai while playing at the Northern city's famous "Casildrome."

Never before has such a bevy of outstanding artists been assembled at one place in Hong Kong. It will most certainly culminate in the greatest "affair" that the Colony has ever witnessed.

"SUNFREEZE INN" AT KOWLOON.

The Kowloon depot of the "Sunfreeze Inn," situated at 72 Nathan Road, corner of Haiphong Road, was opened yesterday.

Owned and operated by the Hong Kong Ice Cream Manufacturing Co., the new place will prove a popular rendezvous to Kowloon residents. Painted in a tasteful shade of green "Sunfreeze Inn" is adequately fitted with modern seating accommodation and decorations.

It is generally assumed that the opposition of the Liberal ministers to the Ottawa agreement is still maintained, and the "Times" says that apparently, "The only connection on which the present composition of the Cabinet can be maintained during the World Economic Conference is that the legislation arising out of Ottawa should be postponed. This suggestion can hardly commend itself to the majority of the Cabinet, and indeed, provisional plans have already been made to start the Ottawa Legislation on October 18, when the House of Commons meets."

In these circumstances newspapers anticipate that the Liberal Ministers will resign from the Cabinet, as will Lord Snowden. It is understood that if the Liberals resign they will not go into opposition, but will co-operate with the National Government on all questions other than that of the Ottawa Legislation. The Prime Minister is already assured of the continued support of Sir John Simon, Mr. Runciman and most of the other Liberal National Ministers.—British Wireless Service.

NEW CLAIM AGAINST FRENCH VESSEL

Court Order For Sale Already Made.

An action seeking the recovery of $756.38 from the French vessel Governor General Maurice Long II, against which an order for sale has been made by the Court, was brought by the Wing Cheung & Co., 14, Pottinger Street, before the Chief Justice, Sir Joseph Kemp, K.C., sitting in Admiralty Jurisdiction this morning.

Mr. R. C. H. Lim, instructed by Mr. C. Y. Kwan, for the plaintiff, said the action was ex parte. The claim was for necessities supplied on January 12, 1932. The total amount was $2,256 of which $1,500 was paid by the defendant's local agent on February 5 this year. The order was made verbally by the captain of the ship and Mr. Lim had evidence of the statement of account endorsed by the Chief Engineer and Captain of the ship.

Yeung Yue-shue, managing partner of the Wing Cheung firm, gave evidence bearing out Mr. Lim's statements. His Lordship remarked that on Sunday last he received a telegram purporting to have come from the owners of the ship at Haiphong. The telegram was mutilated and he understood that it intended to ask for some adjournment in some of the proceedings against the ship—presumably the sale of the ship.

The Chief Justice continued: "I would like to take this opportunity to say that communications of that kind cannot, of course, be acted upon by the Court. The Court must be moved by a legal representative of the applicant in the Colony." His Lordship had taken steps in order to bring the telegram to the notice of the former agents of the ship here.

An order for the confiscation of the vessel was made, and the sum claimed was granted by his Lordship.

EXPLOSION ON FRENCH SUBMARINE.

The Commander of the submarine sent out a wireless call for assistance at once, for the extent of the damage could not be exactly ascertained and there were fears that the submarine might founder with all her wounded aboard. From the Maritime Prefecture near her, two seaplanes were immediately dispatched followed by two fast tugs.

Seaplanes Report. Later in the day the seaplanes returned to Cherbourg with the report that the Persee was saved and in tow of the tugs, coming slowly towards harbour.

Some hours later the straining salvage ships steam into the naval base. The accident was attributed to a burning water-jacket. Fire followed the blast but was quickly extinguished.—Reuter.

BATHING SLIPS NOW AND THEN.

A Margate Memory.

During a discussion on bathing costumes by the Town Council at Margate recently, following a letter which had been received suggesting that the use of bathing slips be permitted, Councillor Abbott asked what was a correct definition of bathing slips. Were they the old-fashioned costumes or not?

He said that he remembered bathing on the sands forty-five years ago in bathing slips. Why they were not allowed now he did not know.

Councillor Hine said that if anyone inspected the old prints of 100 years ago at the library they would see something worse than the costumes worn in Margate to-day.

VON GRONAU FLIES INTO RAIN STORM.

Gliding smoothly over the water, the plane gathered speed, leaving a smother of spray in its wake. The take-off was perfect, and after circling round the hangar the machine roared up the harbour in the direction of Green Island, passing across the Peninsula at 8.15, flying at a very low altitude.

Ready for Emergencies. Seen before he embarked, Capt. von Gronau said he was confident of making Manila, and expected to land in Manila Bay at 2 p.m. to-day. He was, however, carrying enough fuel for 14 hours' flying. Reports of the weather conditions en route, he added, were satisfactory.

Owing to the heavy rain, no local planes escorted the airman out of the harbour, although Mr. Wallace Harper was up before the German fliers took off.

The airman were entertained at an informal reception at the German Club yesterday afternoon. The president of the Club, Mr. J. H. Jensen, welcomed Captain von Gronau, who responded, thanking those present for their hospitality.

Among the guests present were the Hon. Mr. W. E. L. Shenton, Flight-Lieut. Moss (Civil Aviation Superintendent), Messrs. L. O. F. King, F. P. Franklin, A. Hicks, R. T. Barrett, Wallace Harper and Captain Jones.

GANDHI DECIDES TO BREAK SIX-DAY POLITICAL FAST.

The communal award proposed that the depressed classes have special electorates, as well as voting as Hindus in the general constituencies.

The Government announcement adds that the Government has learnt with the greatest satisfaction that agreement has been reached, and points out that other clauses such as those dealing with the franchise of the depressed classes and method of electing them are outside the scope of the communal award, and still under consideration by Government.

The announcement of acceptance of the agreement in place of the award followed a week-end of great activity at Whitehall.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald and Sir Samuel Hoare, the Secretary of State for India, were busy all through Sunday examining the Poona Agreement from every angle.

The wedding of Mr. John B. MacDonald, Esq., and Miss Mary B. MacDonald, Esq., was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. MacDonald, at 10, Grosvenor Gardens, London, on Sunday.

MERITS OF COLLINS OVERLOOKED.

Tennis Players Who Need Pushing.

DISCOVERIES IN U.S.

(By A. Wallis Myers.)

London, Aug. 22.

Last week's lawn tennis both at home and abroad provided many interesting results. America may be said to have "discovered" two players of international calibre—David Jones, who beat Perry at Newport, and Miss Carolyn Babcock, who, on her first visit East from California, reached the final of the women's championship at Forest Hills.

But other countries also advertised their advancing talent. Belgium did so at La Zoute in the international match against England, which, as expected, the visiting side won with a substantial margin.

Mlle. Sigart, the Belgian champion, is one of the best doubles players in Europe—the Wimbledon crowd saw her win the women's doubles title with Mlle. Metaxa—but the relative weakness of her back-court game, especially her service, had checked her progress in singles. Her defeat of Mrs. Whittingstall on Saturday, although it was aided by many double faults from her opponent, is not, in view of her intuitive skill, surprising.

Miss Hewitt's victory at Scarborough confirms the good impression formed by the junior champion's play on the Riviera early this year. (Like Miss Scriven and Miss Stammers, she is a pupil of Dan Maskell, the Wimbledon coach. Miss Scriven was the first of these girls to reveal match-winning powers in the best company—she beat four internationals and very nearly the French champion at Wimbledon last year. Miss Hewitt was in the final of the big Monte Carlo tournament—a wonderful achievement for a girl of 17.

OUR BEST MATCH-PLAYER.

Neither Miss Scriven nor Miss Hewitt has been encouraged enough in official matches this year. We might not have redeemed our position with them, as we could not do with the players chosen; at least we should have recognised independent courage, which is so valuable on the lawn tennis court.

In winning all three Scottish championships at St. Andrews on the same day L. G. Collins has again revealed his "big heart." His victory in the doubles, paired with Lord Charles Hope, was particularly noteworthy.

Collins had bad luck at Wimbledon. After beating Cochet in a match which the Frenchman was trying his hardest to win, the Scot would, naturally have desired to play his next round on the same court, which is appreciably harder than an outside court. Both technically and psychologically he was handicapped when he met Satoh. Although he made no complaint, Collins is perhaps the best match-player we have in Britain to-day. The selection committee have never recognised that fact adequately.

This week at the Longwood Club, Boston, the American doubles championship will be in progress. Austin and Perry, despite their defeat at Newport last week, Lott and Shields, have a fair chance of winning the title. They will not have singles to divert and exhaust them; they will have learned a good deal about their opponents. If Lott and Vines are paired this combination is likely to prove stronger than Allison and Van Ryn, the holders; but there are many other strong couples in the lists.

KAO-YIN TOURNEY.

The Royal Army Ordnance Corps, detached to the Company South Wales Borderers, 3rd Battalion, are holding a tennis tournament at Kao-Yin, China.

SALES SLUMP.Motor Industry In Serious Straits.

EARNINGS' BIG DECLINE.

New York, Sept. 16.

The earnings of the motor-car industry—excluding Ford—for the first quarter of this year show an 88 per cent. decline compared with last year. Sales had dropped by 30 per cent.

This difference in the decline of earnings and sales may be accounted for, according to the "Evening Post," by the fact that in the first quarter of 1931 the motor-car industry—again excluding Ford—operated at about 40 per cent. of its working capacity, while this year it has operated at 30 per cent.

This latter figure is under what is considered to be the "danger line" because, when a plant is operated at 40 per cent. of its capacity, it is generally understood that it has reached the marginal operating ratio between operating at a profit and operating at a loss.

During the first quarter of 1931, the sales for the industry averaged one dollar fifty-six cents for every dollar invested capital. But during the same period this year, sales averaged only one dollar ten cents for every dollar of invested capital.

Operating at 40 per cent. of capacity in the first quarter of 1931, the industry had factory sales of about $380,000,000 ($72,000,000 at par) from which they derived net earnings of nearly 10 per cent.

In the first quarter of 1932—operating at 30 per cent. of capacity—the sales amounted to $250,000,000 ($50,000,000) from which net earnings amounted to only 1½ per cent.

Frequent reports indicate that several manufacturers intend to enter the low-price field, competing with Ford, Chevrolet, and Plymouth. Commenting on such reports, the "Evening Post" considers that such a move at the present time is regarded as "highly dangerous."

"It appears to be a leap in the dark," this journal says, "in the hope that it will result in increased production. It is believed to be better to reorganize capital structures on the basis of present stock prices and eliminate some of the unnecessary capacity upon which the companies are now trying to earn dividends."

"In the face of the present terrible economic conditions, $450,000,000 ($90,000,000 at par) have already been spent by the public in the first five months of this year for passenger cars. Last year $750,000,000 ($150,000,000) were spent in a corresponding period. This indicates very forcibly that people are going to have transportation in spite of the devil and high water, and should convince sceptics, if any left, that the automobile has now become an economic necessity and not a luxury."—Reuter.

New Kind Of
Motor Buses
For London

London, Sept. 15.

An entirely new kind of motor-omnibus is shortly to be put into experimental operation on the London streets.

It will have no bonnet. The engine will be housed at the side of the chassis, under the passengers' seats.

Secret tests of the new omnibus have been carried on in Chiswick for some months. They have proved satisfactory, and the time has arrived for practical demonstration.

The main idea is to save space and to provide extra comfort and accommodation for passengers. It might conceivably set a new fashion in motoring.

If it is found a satisfactory principle for so hard used a vehicle as the London omnibus there appears to be no reason why it should not be applied to private cars.

GERMANY CHANGES
ITS WIRELESS.Wide Co-operation
Made Possible.

Berlin, Sept. 15.

A highly important new factor in the coming development of German affairs is the reorganization of the wireless.

Particularly welcome to all lovers of good music was the news last week that from henceforward the subsidy given to the Berlin Philharmonic from the Ministry of Culture was to be made dependent upon this orchestra giving regular radio concerts.

In other German cities important municipal orchestras have been called upon to co-operate in the same manner, and opera houses will receive subsidies on the same understanding. This implies that in future the money accruing to the Ministry of Posts from wireless licences will be directed in part into other channels. "It also means that in future Germany's musical life is no longer to be regarded as divided into public performances for the rich and wireless for the poor, but that the State will see to it that both are served from the same sources."

More important still are the negotiations in progress which limit the powers of the federal States in regard to their own regional transmitter. Radio is now regarded as so powerful a method of propaganda that the central Government at Berlin intends to gain a firmer hold upon stations situated in the distant corners of the Reich.

It is proposed either to limit regional option in regard to the broadcasting of news by abolishing the local watch-committees or, alternatively, to increase the central government's subsidy, over and above that of the federal State in question, and buy out private shareholders entirely.

Since it is agreed that at present all political parties should be allowed to broadcast their opinions, save the Communists, arrangements are being made for German Communists to broadcast over the Leningrad transmitter.

Berlin.

Carl Noack, Willi Folte and Max Kahlow, three of the best-known pilots employed by the Deutsche Lufthansa, have each passed the mark of 1,000,000 kilometers (625,000 miles) flown in the regular service since 1919. The three "millionaires of the air" were among the first of the former war fliers to enter the commercial air service. They have flown on all the principal European lines: from Berlin to London, Paris, Vienna, Moscow, Rome and Stockholm.

One of them took Friedrich Ebert, first President of the German Republic, down to the National Assembly at Weimar and recently piloted Adolf Hitler on his campaign round trip before the Prussian elections. Folte piloted the first regular passenger planes across the Alps.

GAMBLING ON THE CLASSICS.

Game Of Chance
Or Skill?

Taking the ruling of Magistrate
E. H. Williams in a previous similar case, Mr. Wynne-Jones imposed a fine of $10 on a Chinese named Lau Kwai-ting, who was charged with conducting a gambling game.
During the hearing of the case at the Central Police Court this morning,
His Worship was undecided as to whether the game that was being played, was one of skill or a game of chance.

The object of the game it was stated, was to supply missing words to poems taken from the Tong Dynasty classics. Odds of four to one were offered, the prizes being cigarettes.

Confucius. Many of the shops of the city are closed, while flags, lanterns and bunting fly everywhere. Ferry-boats and launches are gaily decked, and to-night the shops and houses will be more than usually brilliantly lighted, within and without.

The teaching of Confucius do not appeal to the masses, the temple observances being confined to the official classes and the literati, but the Confucian ideals of life and conduct permeate the whole people.

Confucius was born in 551 B.C. and died in 479 B.C. The family was of noble descent, but his father was in poor circumstances.
He began student life at the age of 15 years, and at the age of 22 years commenced public teaching.
In later life he held office as a Magistrate for some time. His teaching was less an original philosophy than an attempt to inculcate a standard of morality
based on his interpretation of history.

ADMIRAL'S CLAIM AGAINST U.S.

Fall Of Shot Indicator.

Features of naval gunnery were discussed recently when
the United States Commission, hearing claims by British subjects for compensation for the use of inventions by the United States Government during the war, continued its sittings in London.

Rear-Admiral C. V. Osborne, of Cadogan-gardens, W., claimed compensation in respect of the Osborne fall of shot indicator.
When more than one ship was firing at an enemy target this indicator registered the fall of each shot, reproduced the time pattern of each salvo, and enabled the range of each gun to be corrected.

The invention was given its first real war test at the Battle of Jutland, and Earl Jellicoe reported it to be "invaluable". It was stated in support of the claim that Rear-Admiral Osborne was the first man to do away with the stop-watch and the human observation feature in registering the fall of shells. The indicator had been the standard equipment of the British Navy since 1912.

Rear-Admiral Osborne said that a committee at the British Admiralty awarded him $1,000 for the invention, the maximum they were empowered in such cases to award. The number of indicators supplied to the British Navy was 332. Assuming the number supplied to the United States Navy to be the same, he claimed from the U.S. Government a total of $15,280, calculated on a royalty basis of $40 on each instrument and $2,000 for the communication of the idea.

RELIABILITY TRIAL ENTRIES.

Twenty-Nine To Date.

Twenty-nine entries have so far been received for the Motor Cycle Reliability Trial to be held on October 8-9. In view of the poor support so far received it has been decided to accept entries until tomorrow evening.

The impression that the secret check section is unduly difficult is believed to be a deterrent to many.
It is anticipated that further entries will be received before the final closing time, which has twice been postponed since Saturday last.

TIBETANS ADVANCE TOWARDS YUSHU.

Nanking, Sept. 16.

Late reports from Sining, capital of Kokonor, deny the capture of Yushu, southern Kokonor (Chinghai), by the Tibetans. The invaders however, have penetrated as far as Chankushin, a few miles south of Yushu city. No immediate danger is feared as the area in its vicinity is comparatively easy to defend.
